

Pam Biblio.

United Presbyterian church, U.S.A. Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations.

bibliography for

INTO ALL THE WORLD TOGETHER

Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations Theme for 1960-61

The United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America
475 Riverside Drive, New York 27, New York
Telephone: RIverside 9-2200, Extensions 2511 and 2512

"INTO ALL THE WORLD TOGETHER"

ADULT

ADVENTURCUS PREACHING; The Lyman Beecher Lectures at Yale, by James H. Robinson. The Lyman Beecher Lectures have special appeal because they deal not only with preaching, but with the whole mission of the church. Channel Press, 1956, 186 pp.

AFRICA AND THE UNITED PRESBYTERIANS, by Winburn T. Thomas and Edwin B. Fairman. Supplement of the life and work of the Churches south of the Sahara where United Presbyterians have mission work. Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations. The United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, 1960, 24 pp.

THE AFRICAN, by William Conton

This is a novel of a native of Gambia who now lives in Ghana, is perhaps the first story of a contemporary African leader by an African who lives in a newly liberated land...Little, Brown and Company, 1960, 244 pp.

AFRICAN VOICES, compiled and edited by Peggy Rutherford

An anthology of native African writing. The Vanguard Press, Inc., 1960, 208 pp.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL MISSION AND RELATIONS OF THE UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, by The United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Material of permanent interest on conditions and developments in Asia; Middle East; Africa; Latin America and Europe.

ARE WE GOOD NEIGHBORS?, by Donald Marquand Doser

Three decades of Inter-American relations 1930-1960. A detailed explanation as to the diversity of the two areas Latin America and the United States and to plead for a relationship based on an understanding of this diversity, and not an ignoring of it. University of Florida Press, 1959, 456 pp.

ASSIGNMENT OVERSEAS, by John Rosengrant and others

How to be a welcome resident and a worthy Christian abroad. Thomas Y. Crowell Company, 1960, 152 pp.

BEHIND THE MODERN SUDAN, by H. C. Jackson

Study of the history of the Sudan. St. Martin's Press, 1955, 226 pp.

CALL OF THE MINARET, by Kenneth Cragg

The author examines and evaluates a new pattern in Muslim-Christian relations against a background of twentieth-century changes and tensions. Oxford University Press, 1956, 376 pp.

CENTENNIAL SERIES, by the United Presbyterian Church In the U.S.A.

A short survey of the mission work of the Presbyterian Church In the U. S. A. Board of Foreign Missions, 1937.

1469

THE CHANGING MIDDLE EAST, by Emil Langyel

A comprehensive view of the Middle East including sketches of events, trends and personalities of contemporary Egypt, Arabia, Iraq, Iran, Syria, Turkey, and other countries. The John Day Co., 1960, 376 pp.

A CENTURY OF PROTESTANT CHRISTIANITY IN JAPAN, by Charles W. Iglehart

Comprehensive account of the Protestant Christian movement in Japan on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the beginning of Protestant Christian Work. Charles E. Tuttle Company, 1959, 384 pp.

THE CHRISTIAN HOPE AND TASK OF THE CHURCH

Six Ecumenical Surveys and the Report of the Assembly prepared by the Advisory Commission on the Main Theme. Background for understanding the proceedings of the Second Assembly of the World Council of Churches held in Evanston, Illinois, during August, 1954. These expressions of informed theological opinion cover the subjects to be considered by the Assembly which are as follows: faith and order, evangelism, social questions, international affairs, intergroup relations, and the laity. Harper and Brothers, 1954, various paging.

CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY: AN ECUMENICAL APPROACH, by Walter Marshall Horton

Theory and principles of missions in which seven Christian doctrines are discussed in reference to their ecumenical significance. Harper and Bros., 1955, 304 pp.

THE CHRISTIAN TRADITION AND THE UNITY WE SEEK, by Albert C. Outler

Given as Richard Lectures of the University of Virginia in Charlottesville, Virginia. Author's aim is to point out what is required of ecumenical thought and action. Oxford University Press, 1957, 165 pp.

CHRISTIAN YOUTH IN CHANGING AFRICA: LET US GO

Report of the second West Africa Conference of YMCAs. Monrovia, Liberia, January 21-31, 1958. World Alliance of YMCAs, 1958, 87 pp.

CHRISTIANITY AND COMMUNICATION, by F. W. Dillistone

Religious treatise for missionaries, including chapters in which we see the church going out to its task of communication in the early centuries, in the middle ages, and in the world of our time. Scribner's 1956, 156 pp.

CHRISTIANITY AND THE ASIAN REVOLUTION, edited by Rajab B. Manikam

Social and economic revolution in India as seen by Asian Christians. International Missionary Council and the World Council of Churches, 1954, 293 pp.

CHURCH BELLS IN MANY TONGUES, by Ralph A. Felton

Tells of the rural church work of national pastors in 19 different countries. Friendship Press, 1958, 130 pp.

THE CHURCH UNDER THE CROSS, by J.B. Phillips

A strong moving case for the cause of today's missionary leaders. Macmillan Co., 1956, 111 pp.

THE CIRCLE BEYOND FEAR, by Darius Leander Swann

A Choral Drama. The figure Cain is used in this choral reading to represent man's lostness and alienation from God. The need for unity in Christian fellowship is powerfully developed. Friendship Press, 1960, 19 pp.

CONVERSATIONS ON ECUMENICAL MISSION

A study in which each chapter is written by a different woman. Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations. The United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, 1960, 47 pp.

THE CRISIS DECADE: A HISTORY OF THE FOREIGN MISSIONARY WORK OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U.S.A. 1937-47, by William Reginald Wheeler. Sections pertaining to the mission work of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., 1951, 269 pp.

DAWN OVER TEMPLE ROOFS, by Lucy Starling

Story of the author's adventures as a missionary in Thailand. World Horizons, Inc., 1960, 182 pp.

THE DEATH OF AFRICA, by Peter Ritner

About current state of affairs in sub-Saharan Africa. Topical reporting and widely controversial interpreting. The Macmillian Co., 1960, 312 pp.

DRUM CALL OF HOPE, by Gene Phillips Clemes

Changing and vivid description of medical, social and spiritual ministry of American Leprocy Missions. Friendship Press, 1960, 96 pp.

THE EAKIN FAMILY OF THAILAND

The recorded history of Thailand, and the lives and activities of twelve members of the Eakin family who have worked in Thailand. Thailand, Parachandra Press, 1955, 240 pp.

THE ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT AND THE RACIAL PROBLEM, by W. A. Visser't Hooft

Briefly, the basic views of the Churches and the convictions by which they are guided in the complex involvement of the Churches in the problem of race. UNESCO, 1954, 70 pp.

EGYPT (Country Survey Series) by George L. Harris and others

Analysis of the sociological, political, and economic aspects of Egypt. Also to define the basic cultural and institutional patterns, and to identify dominant values and attitudes. Human Relations Area Files, 1957, 370 pp.

EGYPT IN TRANSITION, by Jean and Simonne Lacouture

A history. Criterion Books, 1958, 532 pp.

THE EMERGENCE OF A WORLD CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY, by Kenneth Latourette

The Rockwell Lectures on Religion at the Rice Institute, Houston, Texas. Information concerning the spread of Christianity on the non-Occidental peoples, the historic gulfs and disunities within Christianity, the development of organizations and councils preceding the World Council of Churches, and other related matters. Published for the Rice Institute by Yale University Press, 1949, 91 pp.

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2018 with funding from Columbia University Libraries

<https://archive.org/details/bibliographyfori00unit>

EVANSTON; An Interpretation, by James Hastings Nichols

The author tells briefly, but adequately, enough about the ecumenical movement to set the Assembly in perspective, surveys the Christian situation in the contemporary world, and, moves on to describe the worship, discussions and accomplishments that emerged from this important meeting. Harper and Brothers, 1954, 155 pp.

A FAITH FOR THE NATIONS, by Charles W. Forman

Shows the relevance of the Christian faith for all. The Westminster Press, 1957, 94 pp. (Layman's Theological Library)

FANTASTIC SOUTH AMERICA; Continent of the Future, by Henry Lionel Williams
Both ancient and modern history and economies of these countries of South America which include Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Ecuador and Venezuela. Horizon Press, 1958, 350 pp.

THE FIRST DECADE, by Rajaiah D. Paul

An account of the Church of South India. The Christian Literature Society, 1958, 294 pp.

FORWARD THROUGH THE AGES, by Basil Mathews

Story of the expansion of Christianity. New edition. Friendship Press, 1960, 276 pp.

FRENCH WEST AFRICA, by Virginia Thompson and Richard Adloff

A survey of French West Africa. Stanford University Press, 1957, 626 pp.

THE GROWTH OF THE CHURCH IN BUGANDA, by John V. Taylor

(World Mission Studies) A study and account of the Buganda Church. Student Christian Movement Press, Ltd., 1958, 288 pp.

HANDBOOK OF KOREA, by Chae Kyung Oh

Comprehensive work on Korea which presents a picture of the country from earliest times up to the Japanese occupation, through the United States Military Government period, the early days of the formation of the Republic of Korea, including the Korean War period, and the Reconstruction period. Pageant Press, Inc., 1958, 470 pp.

A HISTORY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN VENEZUELA, by the Rev. C. Arthur Phillips
Presbyterian Missionary in Venezuela, 1919-1958. Published by the Presbyterian Mission Press, Caracas, Venezuela, 1958, 72 pp.

HONG KONG, by Harold Ingrams

A highly recommended book on Hong Kong in which the author gives a picture of all aspects of the country, including its geography, history, economic conditions, social and political institutions and the life of the people. (London, H. Stationery Office, 1952, 307 pp.

HOW CHURCHES GROW, by Donald Anderson McGavran

The New Frontiers of Mission. Examination and approach to urgency and needs in today's missionary strategy. Friendship Press, 1959, 186 pp.

IF IT BE OF GOD, by Paul Griswold Macy

The story of the World Council of Churches. St. Bethany Press, 1960, 191 pp.

IN HIS NAME, by George Appleton

Prayers for the church and the world. St. Martin's Press, Inc., 1956, 191 pp.

IN SEARCH OF INDIA, by C. Ross Smith

About the people of India, where they live, their cities and villages, and their culture. Chilton Company-Book Division, 1960, 230 pp.

IRAN (Country Survey Series) by Herbert H. Vreeland and others

Various writers present material from the point of view of the Persian as he sees himself, his culture and his world. Human Relations Area Files, 1957, 347 pp.

THE LEAF AND THE FLAME, by Margaret Parton

The author, a distinguished reporter and foreign correspondent gives the personal story of her adventures in India realistically. Alfred A. Knopf, 1959, 277 pp.

THE LIFE AND STORY OF DR. SA'EED OF IRAN, by Jay M. Rasooli and Cady H. Allen Kurdish Physician to Princess and Peasants, Nobles and Nomads. The story of a Kurdish doctor. Grand Rapids International Publications, 1957, 88 pp.

McFARLAND OF SIAM, by Bertha Blount McFarland

The life of George Bradley McFarland. A biography. Vantage Press, 1958, 313 pp.

A MAN SENT FROM GOD, by W. Reginald Wheeler

A Biography of Robert E. Speer. Comprehensive biography of Dr. Speer who served for forty-six years as Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. Fleming H. Revell Co., 1956, 333 pp.

MEETING WITH JAPAN, by Fosco Maraini

Travelogue, descriptive passages, its information on Japanese history and customs and discussions of Japanese character. Magnificent photographs in glowing colors. The Viking Press, 1959, 467 pp.

MEMOIRS OF A CENTENARIAN, by Arthur Judson Brown, edited by William N. Wysham Reminiscences and experiences of the Secretary Emeritus of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A. World Horizons, Inc., 1957, 174 pp.

THE MOUNTAINS OF RASSELAS; An Ethiopian Adventure, by Thomas Pakenham

This is a travel story, and the whole countryside of Ethiopia comes vividly to life with an excellent account of village and country life in Ethiopia. Reynal and Co., 1959, 192 pp.

MULTIPLYING CHURCHES IN THE PHILIPPINES, by Donald Anderson McGavran

A survey of Church growth in the Philippines. Philippines, the United Church of Christ in the Philippines, 1958, 145 pp. Volume 1.

*MULTITUDES IN THE VALLEY; CHURCH AND CRISIS IN THE MIDDLE EAST, by Denis Baly. Presentation of today's issues in the Palestinian area of the Middle East. (For Students and leaders) Seabury Press, 1957, 307 pp.

NEW DAY DAWNING, by William Richey Hogg
An exposition of new developments in planning overseas work, written for laymen. World Horizons, 1957, 101 pp.

NEW HORIZONS IN LATIN AMERICA, by John J. Considine
Informative account of the people of a continent covering South and Central America. Including a presentation by a Catholic of the current Protestant missionary effort in Latin America. Dodd Mead and Company, Inc., 1957, 128 pp.

THE NEW ORDEAL OF CHRISTIANITY, by Paul Hutchinson
Analyzation of struggles and crises confronting all branches of the Christian Community throughout the world. Association press, 1957, 128 pp.

NEW WORLD IN TROPICS, by Gilberto Freyre
The culture of modern Brazil. Alfred A. Knopf, 1959, 286 pp.

NOTHING IS EVER LOST, by Margaret Shannon
The story of the growth of the Christian Church across the world, with special emphasis on the contribution of life and service of women in the church. Ecumenical Mission, Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A., 1956, 52 pp.

ONE BODY, ONE GOSPEL, ONE WCRLD, by Lesslie Newbigin
The Christian Mission today. International Missionary Council, 1959, 56 pp.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS; A HISTORY OF THE FOREIGN MISSIONARY WORK OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U.S.A., WITH SCME ACCOUNT OF COUNTRIES, PEOPLES, AND THE POLICIES AND PROBLEMS OF MODERN MISSIONS, by Arthur Judson Brown. History of the missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. Fleming H. Revell Co., 1936, 1140 pp.

ONE WORLD, ONE MISSION, by William Richey Hogg
Beginning with the commission to Israel in old Testament times, Dr. Hogg traces the patterns that have evolved from the centuries-long growth in mission concept. Friendship Press, 1960, 164 pp.

OUT OF EVERY NATION, by R.K. Orchard
A discussion of the internationalizing of missions. International Missionary Council Research Pamphlet, No. 7, Student Christian Movement Press, Ltd., 1959, 77 pp.

THE PAKISTANI WAY OF LIFE, by Ishtiaq Husain Qureshi
A brief account of the important sociological aspects of the Pakistani community. It will give insight into the social, religious, and political ideas. Frederick A. Praeger, Inc., 1956, 81 pp.

PARTNERSHIP; THE STUDY OF AN IDEA, by M.A.C. Warren
The author applies the concept of partnership to the ecumenical idea, the Christian Mission, and the problem and possibilities of multi-racial society. Student Christian Movement Press, 1956, 127 pp.

PHILIPPINE FREEDOM, 1946-1958, by Robert Aura Smith

History of the Philippines, discussing the social, political and economic aspects of the rewarding experiment in democracy. Columbia University Press, 1958, 375 pp.

THE PLANTING OF CHRISTIANITY IN AFRICA, by Charles Pelham Groves

A panoramic view of missions throughout Africa. The most comprehensive history in the English language of the beginnings and growth of the African Church. 4 Volumes. London, Lutterworth Press, 1948-1958. 330, 354, 315, 389 pp. Volume 1, to 1840; Volume 2, 1840-1878; Volume 3, 1878-1914; Volume 4, 1914-1954.

PREACHING CHRISTIAN UNITY. edited by Robert Tobias

Twelve ministers from around the world share with their audiences their beliefs and experiences, pertaining to Christian Unity. The Bethany Press, 1958, 160 pp.

PRESBITERIANISMO NO BRASIL or PRESBYTERIANISM IN BRAZIL 1859-1959

Tells the story of Presbyterians in Brazil from 1859-1959, with text in English and Portuguese. Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, 1959, 157 pp.

THE PRESSURE OF OUR COMMON CALLING, by W.A. Visser't Hooft

This book is a valuable step toward defining a theology for the ecumenical movement and a persuasive presentation of the urgency and vitality of this important movement. Doubleday and Company, Inc., 1959, 99 pp.

PROTESTANT BEGINNINGS IN JAPAN, by Winburn T. Thomas

The first three decades 1859-1889. An account and analysis of Christianity in Japan in the 1880's. Charles E. Tuttle Co., 1959, 258 pp.

THE PULPIT AND THE PLCW, by Ralph Felton

This is the study of a rural church at work around the world, includes study of work; survey of concerns; and examination of techniques through which church agencies work. The author places the rural mission within the ecumenical framework as a major challenge for the church. Friendship Press, 1960, 168 pp.

RECORD OF CHRISTIAN WORK IN THAILAND 1828-1958, by Kenneth E. Wells

Record of Christian work in Thailand. Thailand, Church of Christ in Thailand, 1958, 213 pp.

RELIGION AND FAITH IN LATIN AMERICA, by W. Stanley Rycroft

A penetrating study of the religious background and culture which has shaped the present growth of Protestantism in Latin America. The Westminster Press, 1958, 208 pp.

REMEMBER, Inez Moser

Meditations based upon Communion Services in six different countries. Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations, the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, 1959, 50 pp.

RETURN TO JAPAN, by Elizabeth Gray Vining

Elizabeth Gray Vining in 1959 was the only non-Japanese guest to be invited to the Crown Prince's wedding. The author tells the fascinating story of her return to Japan after almost a decade's absence. J.B. Lippincott, 1960, 285 pp.

REVOLUTION IN MISSIONS, edited by Blaise Levai

A study guide on the subject: "The Role of Missions in Present Day India". A symposium intended for further study and discussion. Popular Press, 1957, 303 pp.

REVOLUTION IN MISSIONS, by Willis Church Lamott

Part I, REVOLUTION IN MISSIONS; Part II, CHANGING FORMS OF MISSIONARY WORK; PART III, THE LIFE OF THE YOUNGER CHURCHES; and PART IV, THE YOUNGER CHURCHES AND THE WORLD CHURCH. The Macmillan Co., 1954, 228 pp.

SANDALS AT THE MOSQUE, by Kenneth Cragg

Christian presence amid Islam. Oxford University Press, 1959, 160 pp.

RICE ROOTS; AN AMERICAN IN ASIA, by Arthur Goodfriend

Mr. Goodfriend describes his experience of living in Indonesia for one year as a plain American.

SAO PAULO STORY, edited by Marcel Praddervand

The eighteenth General Council of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the world holding the Presbyterian Order. Official volume of proceedings to which future generations shall refer in the study of the Reformed and Presbyterian Churches. Geneva: The Alliance Offices, 1960, 271 pp.

SHE HAD A MAGIC; THE STORY OF MARY SLESSOR, by Brian O'Brien

The story of Mary Slessor, A Scottish missionary who went to the jungles of West Africa and became a legend that still lives today. E.P. Dutton and Co., 1959, 281 pp.

SOUTHEAST ASIA AND THE WORLD TODAY, by Claude A. Buss. Summarizes the problems confronting the fledgling nations of this vital strategic area which includes Indonesia, Thailand and the Philippines.

STRENGTHENING THE URBAN CHURCH: DEVELOPING MORE AND STRONGER URBAN CHURCHES, by Earl H. Cressy. A survey. The United Church of Christ in the Philippines, 1957, 107 pp.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE BY RELIGIOUS AGENCIES IN LATIN AMERICA, by James G. Maddox. Full length report on the technical service programs operated by United States missionary groups in Latin America. University of Chicago Press, 1956, 139 pp.

THAILAND, by Noel F. Busch

An introduction to modern Siam. D. Van Nostrand Co., Inc., 1959, 166 pp.

THAILAND; ITS PEOPLE, ITS SOCIETY, ITS CULTURE, by Wendell Blanchard and others. (Country Survey Series) A Survey. Human Relations Area Files, Inc. 528 pp.

THIS REVOLUTIONARY FAITH, by Floyd Shacklock

Dr. Shacklock analyzes the causes, symptoms, and emerging results of the revolutionary state of the world. He indicates how Christians must make new approaches to the problems caused by this revolution. Friendship Press, 1960, 176 pp.

VILLAGE JAPAN, by Richard King Beardsley and others

Study of rural Japan. The University of Chicago Press, 1959, 498 pp.

THE VILLAGE PASTOR, by Edward Krusen Ziegler

His work and training for tomorrow's world. Agricultural Missions, Inc., 1959, 110 pp.

YOUR FAITH AND YOUR LIFE WORK, by Elmer G. Million

"Christian Vocation", God calling every Christian to a life of witness and service. A wide variety of church occupations as well as secular work considered. Friendship Press, 1960, 80 pp.

PERIODICALS

CEDAR BOUGH

Published three times a year by the Fraternal Workers in the Syria-Lebanon field. The United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

CHURCH LABOR LETTER

Monthly. School of Theology, Doshisha University, Kyoto, Japan

COLCMBIAN CLIPPINGS

Quarterly. The Synod of the Presbyterian Church in Colombia.

CONCERN

Bi-monthly. Official Magazine, United Presbyterian Women. Successor to OUTREACH and MISSIONARY HORIZONS. Presbyterian Women and the Women's Committee's of the Boards of National Missions and Christian Education and the Commission On Ecumenical Missions and Relations of the United Presbyterian Church In The United States of America.

DRUM CALL

Quarterly. Quarterly of the Fraternal Workers of the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A. Serving in West Africa.

EL EVANGELISTA COLCMBIANA

Monthly. Revista Mensual de la Iglesia Presbiteriana de Colombia.

EL FARO

Monthly. Organ Oficial de la Iglesia Nacional Presbiteriana de Mexico

GUATEMALA NEWS

Quarterly. Organ of the Guatemala Mission of the Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

INDIA VILLAGE SERVICE

Weekly. India Village Service, Dr. M. L. Sill, Director.

MENSAJERO EVANGELICO.

Monthly. Revista Oficial Del Sinodo Presbiteriana De Guatemala.

MONDAY MORNING

Bi-weekly. (except during June, July and August when published monthly) The United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

PRESBYTERIAN LIFE

Bi-monthly. A Journal of Protestant Christianity. Published by the authority of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

UNITED CHURCH LETTER

Monthly. The United Church of Christ in the Philippines.

VENEZUELAN VISTAS

Quarterly. A quarterly organ of the Presbyterian Church in Venezuela for inter-church interpretation. Formerly ONCE-IN-A-WHILE NEWS.

WESTERN INDIA NOTES

Quarterly. A publication of the Kolhapur Church Council in Western India

WORLD FAMILY

Monthly. (September through May) Mission news for boys and girls. Board of National Missions and Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations. The United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

BOOKS MARKED WITH * ARE ALSO OF SPECIAL INTEREST

FOR ADULTS AND YOUTH

BOOKS FOR YOUNG READERS

ADVENTURES WITH THE BIBLE, by Alice Geer Kelsey.

Ten stories from 10 different lands. The stories deal with various aspects of the Bible on the mission field, how it is translated, distributed, and used, how people learn to read it, how they treasure it and live by it. Friendship Press, 1960, 128 pp. (Junior)

BRIGHT PATHWAYS, by Esma R. Booth

Ten action filled stories based on real incidents that tell of the "bright pathways" by which the gospel of Jesus is carried to children in other countries. (Junior)

CAUGHT IN THE MIDDLE, by Glora M. Wysner

This book introduces the reader to many facets of life in the Middle East. The author stresses the problem of Middle East youth as they seek a place in their changing world. Friendship Press, 1958, 116 pp. (Young People and Seniors)

*CHANGE OF HEART, by Harold A. Ehrenspurger

The story of a young Indian's search for life and purpose amid the turmoil and tensions of modern India. Friendship Press, 1954, 167 pp. (Young People and Seniors)

THE CHURCH WE CANNOT, by Nelle Morton

True stories showing how people in various parts of the world from the "invisible" church of fellowship and sharing. Friendship Press, 1953, 116 pp. (Junior-High)

DAY AFTER TOMORROW, by Alice Lewis

The six stories in this book will transport the reader thousands of miles across the Pacific to the countries of Southeast Asia and to the teen age boys and girls who live there. One can discover what their world is like today and what each hopes to do "day after tomorrow". Friendship Press, 1956, 117 pp. (Junior-High)

*EVERYWHERE, by Rowena Ferguson

A look at the World-Wide Church. Traces beginning and spread of the Christian Church and growth of ecumenical movement. Friendship Press, 1959, 64 pp. (Young People and Seniors)

THE FULL CIRCLE, by Yoshiko Uchida

A story in fiction of Umeko Kagawa, daughter of a famous Japanese Christian. Friendship Press, 1957, 135 pp. (Junior-High)

GETTING TO KNOW MEXICO, by Barbara Gomez

Today's Mexicans at home, work, school and play. Includes brief geographical and historical sketch. Coward-McCann, Inc., 1959, 64 pp. (Junior)

*GIVE AND TAKE, by Hermon C. Ahrens

A story about experiences of young people in a work camp in Southeast Asia. Friendship Press, 1956, 163 pp. (Young People and Seniors)

*GREAT IS THE COMPANY, by Violet Wood

The story of the translation and influence of the Bible around the world. Friendship Press, 1947, 169 pp. (Young People and Seniors)

HERE AND THERE WITH THE BIBLE, by Elizabeth Allstrom

Ten stories that show the various means by which the Bible and its teachings have been spread into all the corners of the world. Friendship Press, 1957, 180 pp. (Junior-High)

JOURNEY INTO MISSIONS, by Philip Williams

Stimulating diary of a first-term missionary who spent five years in Japan.

Friendship Press, 1957, 180 pp. (Junior-High)

LET'S VISIT INDIA, by John C. Caldwell

Describes life in India and the problems. John Day Co., 1960, 96 pp. (Junior and Junior-High)

LET'S VISIT JAPAN, by John C. Caldwell

Description and history of Japan, including games, festivals, religions, life in the country, industry and transportation, the government of modern Japan, and Japan's problems. John Day Co., 1959, 96 pp. (Junior and Junior-High)

LET'S VISIT KOREA, by John C. Caldwell and Elsie F. Caldwell

The history, geography, and present-day life of Korea. John Day Co., 1959, 95 pp. (Junior and Junior-High)

LET'S VISIT THE MIDDLE EAST, by John C. Caldwell

A summary of the history of the Middle East with brief accounts of recent history and problems of each nation. John C. Day, 1958, 96 pp.

LET'S VISIT PAKISTAN, by John C. Caldwell.

Description of East and West Pakistan. John Day Co., 1960, 96 pp. (Junior and Junior-High)

LET'S VISIT SOUTHEAST ASIA: Hong Kong to Malaya, by John C. Caldwell

Some historical facts, as well as cultural, religious, political, geographical, and economic factors pertaining to Southeast Asia. John Day Co., 1957, 96 pp. (Junior and Junior-High)

LET'S VISIT WEST AFRICA, by John C. Caldwell

Describes contemporary life and history of West Africa. Includes countries of Cameroun and Spanish Guinea. John Day Co., 1959, 96 pp. (Junior and Junior-High)

MANY HANDS AND MANY LANDS, by Alice Geer Kelsey

Twelve stories about boys and girls in other lands. Friendship Press, 1953, 120 pp. (Junior)

*MISSION UNLIMITED, by S. Franklin Mack

A picture book that tells in brief what is happening in our world today. Vivid text and many photographs. Friendship Press, 1955, 96 pp. (Young People and Seniors)

PEARLS ARE MADE, by Ann M. Harrison

Experiences of Donna and Hasan, teen agers of the Middle East today. Friendship Press, 1958, 135 pp. (Junior-High)

THE ROUND WINDOW, by Elizabeth Allstrom

Twelve stories which tell children how different kinds of people worship. Friendship Press, 1953, 127 pp. (Primary)

THE SINGING SECRET, by Elizabeth Allstrom

A selection of lively stories for boys and girls. Friendship Press, 1955, 127 pp. (Primary)

*TEN AGAINST THE STORM, by Marianna N. Prichard and Norman Y. Prichard

Ten stories of the lives and experiences of ten Japanese Christian leaders, Friendship Press, 1957, 164 pp. (Young People and Seniors)

*TURNING WORLD, by Betty Thompson

Tells in journalistic style of Christians in many nations and activities the author has seen in many parts of the world which portray the ecumenical spirit at work. Friendship Press, 1960, 128 pp. (Young People and Seniors)

WE BELONG TOGETHER, by Frances W. Eastman

A trip to many parts of the world in five stories accompanied by a short introduction telling about what Christians are doing to bring the gospel to all people in the area where the story takes place. The author whisks her readers from Angola to Thailand, Germany, Nepal, and Brazil by way of Korea and India. Friendship Press, 1960, 125 pp. (Junior-High)

*WE HAVE ONE FUTURE

Pictorial brochure covering all the work of the Commission in Ecumenical Mission and Relations, both geographically and functionally, according to the type of work. Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, 1959, 157 pp. (Young People and Seniors)

WHEN WE PRAY, compiled by Wilmina Rowland

Written to unite the youth of the world-wide Christian fellowship in prayer. Has devotional material, information about youth work and pictures from twelve of the countries that share in World Youth Projects. Friendship Press, 1955, 63 pp. (Young People, Seniors and Junior-High)

WHEN WE SHARE, compiled by Frances Maeda

Devotional material, prayers, scriptures, poems from countries that share in World Youth Projects including photographs. Friendship Press, 1957, 63 pp. (Young People, Seniors and Junior-High)

WHEN WE WORK TOGETHER, compiled by William A. Perkins

Text and photos presents story of work camps around the world. Devotional resource. Friendship Press, 1960, 64 pp. (Young People, Seniors and Junior-High)

*WHERE'ER THE SUN, by Samuel Hugh Moffett

The story of the spread of Christianity from continent to continent. Friendship Press, 1953, 121 pp. (Young People and Seniors)

WHOSE WORLD?, by John S. Wood

A Handbook of International Relations. Describes revolutionary forces in today's world and defines young Christian's responsibility. Friendship Press, 1960, 80 pp. (Young People, Seniors and Junior-High)

*WITH PEN AND BRUSH, compiled by Margery L. Mayer

High School boys and girls of Japan express their problems and plans, their dreams, to young people in America and Canada. Included are twenty-eight drawings. Friendship Press, 1957, 88 pp. (Young People and Seniors)

WORLD UPSIDE DOWN, edited by Margaret Greene

A book of seven stories by seven well-known writers about Junior-Highs in Japan, India, China, Near East, Africa, Thailand and Korea. Each story shows a situation which thousands of teen age young people are facing today. Friendship Press, 1955, 122 pp. (Junior-High)

